Nine floors, each one is all yours

For those seeking a home-sized suite away from home, Espacio, The Jewel of Waikiki welcomes guests starting Sept. 7.

HONOLULU (Aug. 15, 2022) – With balcony Jacuzzis, around-the-clock butler service, and customized excursions exclusive to each suite, Espacio, The Jewel of Waikiki guests can anticipate premium personal space and grandeur. The full-floor layout allows guests to simply focus on the sound of waves crashing and palm trees blowing from their beachside suite.

At 2,250 square feet, each suite promises unparalleled comfort and peace on the Waikiki beachfront. With no more than nine parties of guests at once, Espacio can customize every moment from arrival to departure. Guests will have uninterrupted access to concierge and butler services for stress-free relaxation, whether they desire a day out in Honolulu or within Espacio to enjoy the world-class amenities.

“Espacio provides everything guests could possibly need and want during their stay, from fine dining at our restaurant Mugen to reservation bookings for the highly sought-after Kūhiō Beach Hula Show,” said Theresa van Greunen, director of public relations at Aqua-Aston Hospitality. “Our team is here to ensure your vacation is truly all yours. Beyond the privacy of the full-floor suites, we are constantly anticipating whatever our guests may need next.” van Greunen also emphasized how the size of each suite is larger than that of the average American family home. As a result, she names Espacio as the first of its kind in boutique luxury experiences.

In addition to the features of individual suites, guests can experience the amenities of the resort as a whole. Guests can look forward to a variety of comforts and conveniences located in and around Espacio, such as:

- Rooftop infinity swimming pool, whirlpool, and sundeck
- Effortless access to the sands of Waikiki Beach
- Complimentary entrance to the Bishop Museum and Honolulu Museum of Art for registered guests
- The only private in-suite Kaiseki experience in Hawaii, prepared by acclaimed chef Mamoru Tatemori. Bookings are exclusive to Espacio guests, who can enjoy a multi-course seasonal, personalized tasting menu. ($: comes at an additional cost)
- Treatments at Espacio Spa by exceptionally trained therapists, who use Hawaiian techniques and minerals ($: comes at an additional cost)

Bookings between Oct. 1 and Dec. 31 will be marked at $2,500 per night, instead of the regular nightly rate of $5,000. While the suites come at premium prices, the expansive private balconies for picturesque ocean views, 24/7 access to concierge support, and ultra-luxury amenities are unique to the Espacio stay.
